

Meeting Statement:

In light of the current COVID-19 crisis, please be patient with each other as we continue to find ways to be there for each other, and to continue our meetings. This is a whole new world to us all

Please remember that each meeting has a unique personality, and each has its own suggestions of conduct. In this meeting, crosstalk IS allowed, as long as all comments are given in a positive and supportive light.